Earth Day—April 22, 2013

"We do not inherit the earth from our Ancestors, we borrow it from our children."
Native American Proverb

Dr. Catherine D'Amico is Professor and Associate dean for the College of Nursing, Roseman University, Henderson Campus. Dr. D'Amico has more than 30 years of experience in nursing education and administration. Her career prior to moving to the Las Vegas area was in the New York City metropolitan area.

Adult and older adult health are Dr. D'Amico's major areas of clinical expertise and research. Her recent publications center on the prevention of falls as a complication of hospitalization as well as the prevention and treatment of other common syndromes of older adults.

Dr. D'Amico is a member of numerous honorary, professional and community organizations. She has served as an advisor for local Boy Scout troops and on the board of various community health and education agencies in the New York area.

Dr. D'Amico earned her PhD at New York University and her Master's and Baccalaureate degrees at the Hunter College—Bellevue School of Nursing. She is certified as a Nurse Executive—Advanced by the American Nurse Credentialing Center.

SENIORS UNITED CREED ESTABLISHED BY JULIAN AND LILIAN WALLACE

Seniors United was created as an inspirational medium for seniors. It's purpose is to educate, promote and protect the rights of seniors.

The needs of seniors differ from younger citizens. It is important to have an organization devoted to our place in the community and to promote it's continued growth.

The members of Seniors United want to share experiences with others. Nonpartisan and nonsectarian, we are very actively involved in the political structure of our state and country. Forums are varied to benefit the needs of the community and to discuss political issues. Guest speakers come from all areas.

It is with pride that we are seniors and are doubly proud to be members of Seniors United. The pride continues in our many accomplishments and in the good name we have established in the community. Our goal is to develop plans for a great tomorrow and to make it happen.

Everyone is welcome, young to old and from every walk of life.
